Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Casper College is a program for adults age 50+ who wish to continue learning and exploring for the sheer joy of it. Renew your enthusiasm for learning in a relaxed atmosphere, without entrance requirements, grades, or exams.

Supported by the Bernard Osher Foundation, OLLI is a vibrant learning community offering a rich array of short courses, field trips, and lectures of particular interest to adults aged 50+. No college background is needed; all that is required is a love of learning. Activities take place on the easily accessible Casper College campus as well as offsite at other community locations.

OLLI Policies

Registration deadline: Unless otherwise noted, registration is on-going until the class fills or begins. Class sizes are limited.

Cancellations: Classes occasionally are cancelled due to insufficient registration or other unforeseen circumstances. All fees will be refunded if the class is cancelled by Casper College. In most cases, the decision to cancel a class will occur at least three days prior to the start of class, so register early to prevent cancellations.

Refunds: If you are unable to attend a class or field study for which you have registered, please notify us at least THREE business days prior to the start of the class or the registration deadline, whichever date is sooner, to cancel your registration and arrange for a refund. No refunds will be granted without the required notice. Failure to attend is not a cancellation. If you have any questions please call 307-268-2097.

Class size: To ensure adequate supplies and space, class size limits must be followed. If a class is full, participants will be put on a waiting list, and notified if an opening occurs or a second section is opened. Participants are not advised to show up at a class unregistered.

Inclement weather: In the event of inclement weather, call the college at 307-268-2097/3401 to verify the status of your class.
