- A financial hold is placed on an account whenever a payment is past due or when the account has an outstanding balance, regardless of payment arrangements, prior to early registration.
- The financial hold will prevent new registrations and the issuance of academic transcripts.

- To release a financial hold, the debt must be paid in full. Payment with collected funds will release the hold upon payment. There is a two-week wait from the date of deposit when payment is by personal check.
- New registrations will be cancelled for nonpayment of a prior semester debt.
- An account that has not met payment requirements will be referred for collection.

CONSEQUENCES OF AN ACCOUNT IN FULL COLLECTION

- There will be no adjustment to or petition consideration given to an outstanding balance.
- Account will be assessed collection costs, court costs and attorney’s fees incurred as a result of collection efforts. The default will be reported to credit reporting agencies.
