GRADING POLICY

Work for all printmaking classes is expected to be work in progress, not printing and presenting work done previously, or work used to satisfy requirements for other classes. Copying or presenting someone else's artwork constitutes plagiarism and is grounds for a failing grade.

Grading Prints

Prints will be graded on the following:
1. Creativity (composition, originality, content)
2. Technique (technical control)
3. Concept (how well does it fulfill the assignment)
4. Presentation (craftsmanship)
See Photography Evaluations policy.

Late Assignments and Redos

All unexcused late assignments will be dropped one letter grade and must be turned in no later than one week from the due date otherwise a failing grade will result. If students choose to ignore any assigned project it will be reflected in the final grade. See Final Grades policy.

Any assignment may be redone for a possible better grade, but it must be submitted and shown to the class on the due date before it qualifies for a redo. There is no guarantee that a better grade will result from work that is redone. All redo's must be turned in no later than the assigned date prior to the end of the course. Redo requirements are the same as project prints except that the original print must accompany the redo as well as a new data sheet and evaluation.

The standard data sheet, complete with all relevant data and project evaluation, along with a complete contact sheet is required for each assignment and must be in a plastic sleeve securely taped to the back of the print or the print will be considered incomplete and receive a grade drop when completed (within one week). Final grades are determined by the following:

1. Completion of ALL assignments regardless of total points accrued.
2. Degree of growth of the individual and his ability to express himself visually and to demonstrate an understanding of the medium. Students work is not evaluated in competition with other class members.
3. Cumulative weekly assignment grades.
4. Tests and other writing scores.
5. Contribution to critiques and discussions.
6. Final portfolio grade.
7. Attendance.
8. Participation in facility maintenance.
