Course Description: A continuing course in the principles and techniques of classical ballet. Emphasis is placed on the continuation of broadening the dancer’s movement vocabulary while refining acquired technical skills. This course can be repeated once.

Statement of Prerequisites: DANC 1410 Ballet I in good standing, or permission of the instructor.

Goal: To continue to develop the student’s beginning and intermediate ballet technique as well as his/her bodily awareness. To further understand ballet vocabulary. To be able to confidently discuss and write about ballet.

Outcomes and Course Objectives: The student who completes this course in good standing will be able to successfully demonstrate beginning and intermediate ballet vocabulary, technique, and choreography. The student will successfully create and perform choreography as well as teach a short combination of his/her design. The student will also read, write, and discuss different aspects of ballet.

Casper College General Education Outcomes:
1. Demonstrate effective oral and written communication
3. Solve problems using critical thinking and creativity
4. Demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and historical perspectives
5. Appreciate aesthetic and creative activities
6. Use appropriate technology and information to conduct research
Methodology: This class will use discussion, demonstration, performance, video, reading, writing, and vocabulary testing. Students will work individually, in partners, in small groups, and in large groups. This is primarily a movement-based class.

*The study of dance often requires physical contact, either teacher-to-student (in terms of physical alignment and muscle use) or student-to-student (in the course of improvisation, partnering, or ensemble work). If you have any concern or reservations about the appropriateness of physical contact, please talk to the instructor immediately.
