Course Description: This course is a rehearsal process and class/technique time for the Flight Company. You will be learning new choreography in various styles & genres, as well as strengthening technical skills.

Course Goal: Flight Company will learn pieces of various genres in the semester and will perform these in both the community and at Casper College. They will also have the opportunity to travel and teach in the community.

Statement of Prerequisites: The prerequisite for this course is instructor permission, previous dance experience, and enrollment of one other dance course concurrently.

Outcomes:
1) Development of technique.
2) Achievement of skills related to the choreography presented.
3) Achievement of knowledge of correct placement and alignment.
4) Building and understanding of the performance of dance at a performance level.

Methodology: New approaches to choreography, working in large and small groups.

*The study of dance often requires physical contact, either teacher-to-student (in terms of physical alignment & muscle use) or student-to-student (in the course of improvisation, partnering, or ensemble work). If you have any concern or reservations about the appropriateness of physical contact, please talk to the instructor immediately.

Evaluation Criteria: Attendance and participation is essential for this class. Your progress in the class and attendance will culminate as your grade. Proper attire and classroom etiquette also well be expected and discussed the 1st day of class.
