Methodology: Lecture, readings, class discussion, written assignments, quizzes / exams, speech presentations, self-analysis, peer analysis, and peer coaching will be used to both develop and apply skill sets in preparation, presentation, reception and interpretation of oral messages.

Evaluation Criteria:
I do not “give out” grades. You will earn your grade in this class by demonstrating your mastery of the subject through clearly defined assignments. It is your responsibility to fully understand the assignment. If you are unclear about an assignment, offices hours are a great time to clarify.

Written Work
I will evaluate written work on the basis of clear argumentation, organization, style, grammar and spelling. You will submit all of your writing assignments through Moodle. Please format assignment in Times New Roman 12-point font, double-spaced with one-inch margins.

Late Work
I will not accept late work. Written assignments will have strict deadlines. If you are pre-approved to miss class, you need to turn in assignments prior to your absence. Technical issues do not constitute an exception to this policy.

Discussing Grades
I will only discuss grades privately and in-person. This creates the best atmosphere for mutual understanding and respect. To promote that atmosphere, I ask that you wait at least 24 hours after grades are posted to schedule an appointment with me.

Tardiness
Role will be taken at the beginning of class. Assignments are due at this time. If you are tardy, you are responsible for submitting your work by the end of class. Regular tardiness may result in a deduction for participation.

Casper College may collect samples of student work demonstrating achievement of the above outcomes. Any personally identifying information will be removed from student work.
Required Text, Readings, and Materials:
All formal papers for this course will must be submitted according to the APA Style Manual. (www.purdueowl.com is a great resource for this)
Equipment and ability to capture video and upload to "YouTube.com". Moodle access. Ability to access http://www.americanrhetoric.com/

Class Policies:

Civility Clause
Civility is crucial to discussion and participation-based courses. To ensure that we create a respectful, supportive and safe learning environment, your adherence to the follow expectations is required. Violations of these policies will result in serious disciplinary action.

1. Learning requires active listening. This class includes daily presentations during which you will be a supportive and active audience member. If you are distracting, intimidating or disrespecting a presenter, you will be dismissed from class.
2. You must be alert and awake during class. If you are not mentally present, you will be asked to leave the class. This includes not sleeping, doing homework, reading or using your cell phone during class.
3. Laptops will only be used for class related activities. It will be made clear when laptops are allowed during class. If you choose to use your laptop for other activities, you will lose this privilege.
4. Cell phones need to be put away and on silent.
5. Side conversations are distracting to your instructor and classmates. If you have questions, please ask during discussion.
6. Class will start on time. If you are tardy, you are responsible for the material you missed.
7. Everyone’s beliefs, morals, values and effort will be respected. If you disagree with someone’s point of view, you may only do so in a respectful manner.
8. Your discussion and presentations must be professional. Offensive, crude, sexual or threatening language will not be permitted. If I feel you are threatening the safe and supportive atmosphere of the classroom, I will dismiss you from class. You will be required to meet with me before returning to class.

Last Date to Change to Audit Status or to Withdraw with a W Grade: April 14, 2016

Student Rights and Responsibilities: Please refer to the Casper College Student Conduct and Judicial Code for information concerning your rights and responsibilities as a Casper College Student.

Chain of Command: If you have any problems with this class, you should first contact the instructor to attempt to solve the problem. If you are not satisfied with the solution offered by the instructor, you should then take the matter through the appropriate chain of command starting with the Department Head/Program Director, the Dean, and lastly the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Academic Dishonesty: (Cheating & Plagiarism) Casper College demands intellectual honesty. Proven plagiarism or any form of dishonesty associated with the academic process can result in the offender failing the course in which the offense was committed or expulsion from school. See the Casper College Student Code of Conduct for more information on this topic.
Official Means of Communication: Casper College faculty and staff will employ the student’s assigned Casper College email account as a primary method of communication. Students are responsible to check their account regularly. This is also, where you will find course evaluation links during course evaluation periods.

ADA Accommodations Policy: If you need academic accommodations because of a disability, please inform me as soon as possible. See me privately after class, or during my office hours. To request academic accommodations, students must first consult with the college’s Disability Services Counselor located in the Gateway Building, Room 344, (307) 268-2557, bheuer@caspercollege.edu. The Disability Services Counselor is responsible for reviewing documentation provided by students requesting accommodations, determining eligibility for accommodations, and helping students request and use appropriate accommodations.

Sexual Harassment Protection: Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find the appropriate resources below.
