Course Description:
A study of the fundamentals of purposeful communication in English. The course focuses on reading and writing expository essays, on using effective language for exposition of ideas, and on thinking clearly. Students are to practice synthesizing information, organizing it coherently, and writing clearly.

Statement of Prerequisites: Please see the ‘English Placement Chart” to determine whether you have fulfilled the prerequisites for ENG 1010. If you have not fulfilled the course prerequisites, you will be subject to removal from the course.

Goal:
To prepare students for ENG 1020, and for writing in whatever professional and academic settings they may find themselves in.

Outcomes:
Students will be able to express and explain their own ideas in a clear, precise way, and in a style that is appropriate for college courses. They will be able to demonstrate effective written communication.

Casper College may collect samples of student work demonstrating achievement of the above outcomes. Any personally identifying information will be removed from student work.

Methodology:

Intensive reading and writing, along with smaller assignments, including grammar exercises and reading quizzes.

Evaluation Criteria:

Points are distributed as follows:

- Papers 1, 2, and 3: 100 Points Each
- Smaller Assignments: 200 Points +/- Varies by Assignment, and each semester

To calculate the final grade, I total up the points earned and make a percentage based on the total number of points possible. Then I assign a letter grade as follows:

- A = 90-100% of all possible points
- B = 80-89% of all possible points
- C = 70-79% of all possible points
- D = 60-69% of all possible points
- F = 59% or less

Smaller Assignments = In-class writing assignments, assigned exercises from textbooks, reading quizzes, and so on. These will be graded based on both the quality of the writing and whether or not the basic requirements of the assignment have been met. Most small assignments will be accepted late, but reading quizzes cannot be made up without an excused absence.

Papers = 3 Essays over various assigned topics. Please see the “Course Paper Guidelines” for further information. If you have taken my 1010 class in the past, I will not accept revisions of past papers. You are required to write entirely new work. Any essay which contains portions of old papers will not be accepted.
