Course Description: 30 minute private instruction for major and non-majors. Majors attend studio classes and perform a final jury. A course fee is assessed. Course content changes each semester.

Statement of Prerequisites:
Goal: Determined through interview at beginning of term.

Outcomes:
Based on initial interview:
1. Determine specific musical direction
2. Establish musical goals (Specific pieces, or stylistic goals
3. Be able to perform specific pieces at reasonable level by the end of the term. Majors will perform selections and/or technical studies for jury exam.

Methodology:
Weekly lessons will consist of technical studies consistent with the determined musical selections or styles. Other various activities will be introduced at each lesson as needed to assist in learning these pieces or styles.

Evaluation Criteria:
Attendance is mandatory. A student is allowed but 2 unexcused absences. Please contact instructor if it is necessary to be absent or if you need to reschedule. Most of your final grade is based on attendance. The remainder is determined on progress towards our goals.
Casper College may collect samples of student work demonstrating achievement of the above outcomes. Any personally identifying information will be removed from student work.

Required Text, Readings, and Materials: Materials will be assigned as needed after beginning interview.

Class Policies: Last Date to Change to Audit Status or to Withdraw with a W Grade: April 14, 2016.

Student Rights and Responsibilities: Please refer to the Casper College Student Conduct and Judicial Code for information concerning your rights and responsibilities as a Casper College Student.

Chain of Command: If you have any problems with this class, you should first contact the instructor to attempt to solve the problem. If you are not satisfied with the solution offered by the instructor, you should then take the matter through the appropriate chain of command starting with the Department Head/Program Director, the Dean, and lastly the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Academic Dishonesty: (Cheating & Plagiarism) Casper College demands intellectual honesty. Proven plagiarism or any form of dishonesty associated with the academic process can result in the offender failing the course in which the offense was committed or expulsion from school. See the Casper College Student Code of Conduct for more information on this topic.

Official Means of Communication: Casper College faculty and staff will employ the student's assigned Casper College email account as a primary method of communication. Students are responsible to check their account regularly. This is also, where you will find course evaluation links during course evaluation periods.

ADA Accommodations Policy: If you need academic accommodations because of a disability, please inform me as soon as possible. See me privately after class, or during my office hours. To request academic accommodations, students must first consult with the college’s Disability Services Counselor located in the Gateway Building, Room 344, (307) 268-2557, bheuer@caspercollege.edu. The Disability Services Counselor is responsible for reviewing documentation provided by students requesting accommodations, determining eligibility for accommodations, and helping students request and use appropriate accommodations.

Calendar or schedule indicating course content: based on individual progress
