Course Description: This course will be a continuation of study in the principles and techniques of modern dance. Dancers will focus on linking technique with terminology and execute combinations made up of the basic-intermediate steps, as well as the continued discovery of movement in space and time.

Statement of Prerequisites: DANC 1401/PEAC 1401 Modern Dance IA.

Goal: To continue to teach the student elementary principles and techniques in modern dance. To continue to develop the ability to perform basic movement patterns and qualities of movement as well as understand how movement relates to music and rhythm. To continue to develop muscular coordination, agility, kinesthetic sense, and self-awareness. To be able to confidently perform and choreograph as well as discuss and write about modern dance.

Outcomes and Course Objectives: The student who completes this course in good standing will be able to successfully demonstrate beginning to intermediate modern dance vocabulary, technique, and choreography. The student will successfully create and perform choreography as well as teach a short combination of his/her design. The student will also read, write, and discuss different aspects of modern dance.

Casper College General Education Outcomes:
1. Demonstrate effective oral and written communication
3. Solve problems using critical thinking and creativity
4. Demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and historical perspectives
5. Appreciate aesthetic and creative activities
6. Use appropriate technology and information to conduct research
Methodology: This class will use discussion, demonstration, performance, video, reading, writing, and vocabulary testing. Students will work individually, in partners, in small groups, and in large groups. This is primarily a movement-based class.

*The study of dance often requires physical contact, either teacher-to-student (in terms of physical alignment and muscle use) or student-to-student (in the course of improvisation, partnering, or ensemble work). If you have any concern or reservations about the appropriateness of physical contact, please talk to the instructor immediately.
