

Steven Haack Collection

February 2, 1011 accessioned formally into WHC

[several items were donated to the WHC prior to incorporation into one formal collection]

Collection of records and manuscripts pertaining to the Battle of Platte Bridge and the Custard Wagon Train Massacre, 1865. This collection contains letters, copies of articles written by Steve Haack, maps and printed photographs of site.

Identifier	Additional Description	Location
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 1	Maps (Hyde and Bent) of Battle of Platte Bridge	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 2	Article "The Lost Men of the 11th Kansas Cavalry"	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 3	DVD with Hyde and Bent Maps of Battle of Platte Bridge	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 4	Great Plains Quarterly, winter 2010, vol 30, no 1, "This Must Have Been a Grand Sight" George Bent and the Battle of Platte Bridge	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 5	Journal of the West, vol. 49, No. 1, Winter 2010 -- "Platte Bridge: A Grand Effort and an Enduring Mystery"	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 6, n001	Battle of Red Buttes. (1) Booklet: "The Fate of Amos J. Custard and the Men of the 11th Kansas Cavalry."	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 6, n002	Booklet: George Bent's May 22, 1906 Letter to George Hyde (2 copies)	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 6, n003	From Sand Creek to the Powder River: George Bent's Year of Warfare as Related in his Letters, transcription and commentary by Steve Haack, copyright 2007 -- letters date from 1906 to 1915	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 7, n001	Location of Custard site pointed out on contemporary map of Casper and surrounding areas	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 7, n002	Eleventh (11th Cavalry) Kansas Cavalry, 1865, and Battle of Platte Bridge written by George M. Walker of Salina published in the Kansas State Historical Society Journal	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 7, n003	The Eleventh Kansas (11th Cavalry) regiment at Platte Bridge written by S.H. Fairfield of Alma published in the Kansas State Historical Society Journal [Fairfield was member of 11th Cavalry & member of Beecher Bible and Rifle Church - congregational Church at Wabaunsee]	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n001	"A Proposal for the Location of the 1865 Custard Wagon Train Massacre" by Steve Haack and Randy Bjorkland with photographs and map	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n002	Revised "A Proposal for the Location of the 1865 Custard Wagon Train Massacre" by Steve Haack and Randy Bjorkland with photographs and map 2. Letter to Kevin Anderson from Steven Haack	R205, Haack Collection

Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n003a	Letter to Sherry Taylor, President of Natrona County Chapter Wyoming State Historical Society from Steven Haack and Randy Bjorkland -- imminent danger posed to Custard Wagon Train Massacre site.	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n003b	Letter to Wyoming Archaeological Society from Steven Haack and Randy Bjorkland -- imminent danger posed to Custard Wagon Train Massacre site.	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n003c	Letter to Casper Historic Preservation Commission from Steven Haack and Randy Bjorkland -- imminent danger posed to Custard Wagon Train Massacre site.	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n004	Letter to Kevin Anderson from Steven Haack enclosing copy of George Bent Letter to George Hyde dated Aug. 16, 1911 regarding location of the Assinboines and route Cheyennes took at Battle of Platte Bridge	R205, Haack Collection
Haack Manuscript Collection - Folder 8, n005	Map and photographs of endangered alleged site of Custard Wagon Train Massacre 1865	