LIVESTOCK JUDGING CAMP

June 20-22, 2022
Grace Werner Agricultural Pavilion,
Casper College campus

THE CAMP

The Casper College Livestock Judging Camp focuses on livestock evaluation, with special emphasis on the presentation of oral reasons. Example classes to be evaluated include: market and breeding sheep, swine, cattle, and goats. In addition, four learning divisions will be offered: novice, intermediate, advanced, and adult. Cost includes meals, lodging, T-shirt, judging manual, judging contest, and awards.

THE CONTEST

The final day of judging camp will be a mock judging contest where competitors can put their knowledge and skills to the ultimate test! The judging contest will be comprised of six placing classes and three sets of reasons.

INSTRUCTORS

Educators, industry leaders, and livestock judging team members from Casper College will be camp coordinators.
